

Michael S. Rickman
Deputy Director
North Texas Municipal Water District

Mike Rickman is the Deputy Director of the North Texas Municipal Water District (District) and has been employed with the District since October 2002. Mr. Rickman is directly responsible for the following District departments:

- Water, Wastewater and Solid Waste Operations
- Environmental Services
- Maintenance Services
- Information Technologies

The District was created in the 1950s to provide wholesale treated water to the areas north and east of Dallas. The District has added wastewater treatment and solid waste disposal services in its service area. The District's current service area covers approximately 2,000 square miles and continues to grow.

Prior to joining the District, Mike was employed by the City of Dallas Water Utilities Department for 33 years.

Mike and his wife, Pam, reside in Combine, Texas (a suburb of Dallas). They have three daughters, a son, and six grandchildren.
